We may also use it for market research, statistical purposes and the prevention and detection of fraud. In cases where it is considered necessary for the prevention and detection of fraud or other financial crime, your information may be shared with other financial companies. We will keep the information you have supplied confidential and will not share it with others without your agreement, except where the law permits, when it may be disclosed to law enforcement agencies, Ombudsman and Regulators and except in the circumstances that follow.

Your information may be shared with financial advisers or people acting on your behalf. It may also be shared with others in connection with administering your investment and services for you. In addition it may also be shared amongst Lloyds Banking Group companies to: provide the service you applied for, to update our records and to identify other products and services which may interest you.

If you would prefer not to receive details of other products and services, please tick here . Other Lloyds Banking Group companies will not make marketing approaches to you unless you already have a relationship with them.

Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 1998 you are entitled to request a copy of information we hold relating to you. A small charge will be payable.

We may administer your investment and provide other services from centres in countries outside Europe (such as India and the USA) that do not always have the same standard of data protection laws as the UK. However, there will be a contract in place to ensure that your information is adequately protected, and we will remain bound by our obligations under the Data Protection Act even when your personal information is processed outside the European Union.
